d. February 27, 1832, aged 78 years, in Washington County, N.Y.
m. probably about 1775/6 Mary (also called Marcy) Tefft, daughter of Capt. Joseph Jr. and Sarah Maxson Tefft, b. November 24, 1758 at Richmond. She died between 1822 and 1830.

Perry Watson served in the Revolution for three months beginning September 18, 1776. The Watsons were Baptists, and in 1787 a meeting house was built in Richmond on land given to the church by Perry Watson.

Children: 5th Generation

(17) Beriah, b. May 15, 1777 at Richmond, R.I.*
(18) A son, perhaps named Joseph, b. say 1779. There are many records of a Joseph Washington Watson but this compiler has not been able to determine whether he was the son of Perry or whether he was a son of William and Susannah Tanner Watson.
(19) Sarah (Sally) b. say 1781, married 1800 in Providence to John Babcock. She died in 1812 at the home of her parents, Perry and Marcy Watwon. No Record of any children.

17. BERIAH WATSON (5)

b. May15, 1777 at Richmond, R.I.
d. April 11, 1850 at West Almond, N.Y.

m. 2nd after 1843 Elizabeth Baker, widow of Joshua Baker.

About 1805 Beriah and Deborah Watson left Richmond, R. I. and moved to Greenwich Washington County, N.Y. where they purchased land. There they lived for over 2(years. and there all their children were born. In 1829 Beriah journeyed to Allegany County, N.Y.. perhaps by way of the new Erie Canal, and purchased land in West Almond (at that time a part of Angelica). He made the first journey alone, leaving his wife, his aged father and hes children in Greenwich. Presumably the family did not move to West Almond permanetly until after the death of Perry Watson in 1832; and even then Beriah's eldest son, Perry H. Watson , who had married in1826, decided to remain in Washington County.

A BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE WATSON FAMILY for
THE WATSON REUNION
August 19, 1962

FIRST GENERATION: John Watson, first appears in R.I. records in 1673. Married Dorcas Gardiner, daughter of George & Herodias Long Gardiner. Married second her sister, Rebecca. Died 1728 North Kingstown, R.I.

SECOND GENERATION: William Watson, son of John & Dorcas Watson, lived Westerly, Charlestown & Richmond, R.I. His wife's name was Mary; last name unknown. He died after 1763, probably in Richmond.

THIRD GENERATION: Simeon Watson, son of William & Mary Watson, born February 21, 1726 at Westerly, R.I., married 1748 at Richmond, R.I. Mrs. Hannah Kenyon Kenyon, daughter of David & Mary Kenyon and widow of Samuel Kenyon. Simeon died July 1755 at Richmond.

FOURTH GENERATION: Perry Watson, son of Simeon & Hannah Kenyon Watson, born February 13, 1754 at Richmond, R.I., married about 1775/6 Marcy, daughter of Capt. Joseph Jr. and Sarah Maxson Tefft. She was born November 24, 1758. Perry Watson served in the Revolution for three months, beginning September 18, 1776. According to the 1790 census, Perry & Marcy had three children: two boys and one girl. Perry lived Richmond, R.I. and in his latter years at Greenwich, Washington County, N.Y. He died February 27, 1832, aged 78 years, in Washington County.

FIFTH GENERATION: Beriah Watson, son of Perry & Marcy Tefft Watson, born May 15, 1777 at Richmond, R.I., married June 17, 1799 Deborah Hoxsie, daughter of Elijah & Anna Hoxsie. About 1805 Beriah & Deborah left Richmond and moved to Greenwich, Washington County, N.Y., where they lived for over twenty years and where their children, except for the first two, were born. In 1829 Beriah journeyed to Allegany County, N.Y., perhaps by way of the new Erie Canal, and purchased land in West Almond, (at that time a part of Angelica). He made the first journey alone, leaving his wife, his aged father and his children in Greenwich. Presumably the family did not move to West Almond permanently until after the death of Perry in 1832, and even then Beriah's eldest son, who had married in 1826, decided to remain in Washington County. Deborah Watson died July 30, 1843. Beriah married second Elizabeth Baker, widow of Joshua Baker. He died April 11, 1850, was buried on a farm near Belmont, N.Y.

SIXTH GENERATION: Among the children of Beriah & Deborah Watson who settled in Allegany County, N.Y. and Potter County, Pennsylvania, were Elijah Hoxie Watson, born 1803; Martin Watson, born 1817; and Joseph B. Watson, born 1824.

SEVENTH GENERATION: Children of Elijah Hoxie Watson were Morris Watson, Mary Watson McGibney, Henry H. Watson, George W. Watson. Children of Martin Watson were Lester B. Watson, James A. Watson, Joseph A. Watson, Anner Watson White, Benjamin T. Watson, Martin E. Watson, Abel E. Watson and Mary Watson Jackson. Children of Joseph B. Watson were Gardner Watson, Esther Watson McGibney, Amanda Watson, Elmer Ellsworth Watson, Augusta Watson Hooker and Alice Watson Bennett.

EIGHTH GENERATION: Lydia Watson Bertron, George Watson, Claude Watson, Mabel Watson Schoonover, Oscar Watson, Daniel Watson, Bertha Watson Reed, Edith Watson Patmore, Paris Watson, Martin & Jennie Watson, Etta Watson Kephart, Albert Watson, Deforest Watson, Clara Watson Reed, Milo Watson, Mary Watson Kimmer, Evan Watson, Lynn Watson, William C. White, Fred White, Alice Laraby, Clare Watson, Sylvia Williams, Lena VanEpps, Victor Jackson, Irving Jackson & Hartson Watson.
